behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

PTT, LLC,

CASE NO. 3:18-cv-05275-RSL

ORDER GRANTING LEAVE TO AMEND AND MODIFYING CASE
SCHEDULE

This matter comes before the Court on “Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to Amend and to Modify the Scheduling Order.” Dkt. # 250.<sup>1</sup> Having reviewed the memoranda, declarations, and exhibits submitted by the parties, the Court finds as follows:

(1) The December 5, 2023, discovery that defendant transferred ownership of, operation of, and revenue streams from the on-line casino applications at issue in this litigation to a newly-created subsidiary in October 2022 is good cause for an extension of the deadline for amending pleadings as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).

(2) Leave to amend the complaint is appropriate under either Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) or Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2).

1 (3) Plaintiff shall file an amended complaint in substantially the same form as Dkt.
2 # 252-14 and shall include allegations regarding the citizenship of the members of the 3 defendant LLCs.

4 (4) Plaintiff shall have until April 19, 2024, to complete limited discovery regarding 5 High 5 Entertainment, in particular the formation of the LLC and its relationship to 6 defendant and the games at issue, the availability of High 5 Entertainment's applications
7 to Washington-based users, High 5 Entertainment's efforts to prevent Washington-based 8 users from accessing the applications, and revenues generated from Washington-based 9 users.

10 (5) The dispositive motion deadline was January 19, 2024. Dkt. # 244. In order to 11 give High 5 Entertainment an opportunity to seek summary dismissal of the claims
12 plaintiff intends to assert against it and the Court time to rule on that motion before the 13 parties have to file motions in limine, the remaining case management deadlines must be 14 extended. An amended case management order will be entered.

15
